

HISTORY - GRADUATE MINOR

Students may earn a graduate minor in History by passing the following courses:

Prefix	Title	Credits
	Craft of History	3
Select one from the following:		3
HIST 590	Reading Seminar: Borders, Boundaries and Frontiers
HIST 591	Reading Seminar: Modernity and its Discontents
HIST 592	Reading Seminar: Nature and Society
Select two additional 3-credit 500-level and above courses		6
Total Credits		12

Graduate students in History must maintain a 3.0 grade point average in their History courses. A graduate student earning a C or lower grade in one History course will receive a letter of warning. A graduate student earning two or more C or lower grades in History courses or whose History grade point average falls below 3.0 will be removed from the History graduate program. Students must earn at least one B or higher grade in a seminar during their first year in the graduate program, and must take at least one seminar during each year in which they are enrolled in the program. If a graduate student receives one U (Unsatisfactory) grade on his/her thesis or internship, the student will receive a written warning, and if a student received two or more U grades on his/her thesis or internship, the student will be removed from the program.