

PUBLIC HEALTH (HEALTH BEHAVIOR AND HEALTH PROMOTION) - MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Thesis Option A Suggested Plan of Study

Visit with an advisor for help with creating a customized plan.

Non-Thesis Option

A Suggested Plan of Study

Additional classes may be needed based on placement test results and course prerequisites. Visit with an advisor for help with creating a customized plan.

First Year
Fall		Credits
PHLS 5110	Community and Psychosocial Aspects of Public Health	3
PHLS 5120	Biostatistical Applications in Public Health	3
PHLS 5140	Health Services System: Administration and Organization	3
	Credits	9
Spring
PHLS 5130	Epidemiological Approaches to Disease Control and Prevention	3
PHLS 5210	Foundations & Techniques of Public Health Education	3
PHLS 5260	Research and Resources in Community Health	3
	Credits	9
Summer
PHLS 5998	Applied Practice Experience	3
	Cultural Foundation Course	3
	Credits	6
Second Year
Fall
PHLS 5250	Evaluative Approaches in Public Health ²	3
PHLS 5240	Health Program Planning	3
PHLS 5995	Integrative Learning Experience	3
	Credits	9
Spring
PHLS 5150	Environmental Public Health Issues	3
PHLS 5170	Qualitative Methods in Public Health	3
PHLS 5160	Public Health Policy Analysis	3
	Credits	9
	Total Credits	42

¹ Some PHLS 5000-level courses are cross-listed with PHLS 4000-level courses (e.g., PHLS 4610 and PHLS 5610). Students who have previously taken one of these 4000-level courses at NMSU may not take the corresponding 5000-level course for degree completion credit. Selected elective and optional courses may also be available during summer sessions.

² Select three credits from the cultural foundation series numbered PHLS 5610-PHLS 5690.