Academic Programs

Associate Degree Programs

NMSU awards both designated and undesignated associate degrees following completion of at least 60 semester credits (excluding "N" suffix courses). Please see the NMSU System Academic Regulations & Policies (<https://catalogs.nmsu.edu/nmsu/regulations-policies/#academicprogramsofstudyttext>) section of the catalog for specific information about Associate Degree Program graduation requirements. (Service personnel enrolled under the two-year Servicemembers Opportunity College Program may be exempt from this requirement.)

The designation Meritorious Graduate is awarded to the top 15 percent of the students receiving associate degrees within each college in any one academic year; the students must have completed 45 or more credits with computable grades at NMSU.

Academic Minors

Students seeking a degree may elect to complete one or more minors from those available, and the minor(s) will be designated on their transcripts. Minors cannot be earned after a degree has been conferred. A minor may be in a single department or may be interdepartmental. Specific requirements for minors are available in the Academic Catalog, please see the College sections for each college's complete list of the minors offered.
